

Annual Report, External Master's Program Committee

During 2001-2002, the External Master's Program Committee met a total of four times.

Four students personally presented their academic programs to the Committee for review and all received approval for their individual plans. The programs approved by the Committee were Self and Society, Environmental Studies of the Adirondacks, Organizational Dynamics, and Arts Advocacy: Connecting the Artist and the Audience.

The Committee recommended that seven students be awarded the Master of Arts degree.
