

Skidmore College
Office of Institutional Research

Mission Statement

The Office of Institutional Research (OIR) at Skidmore College conducts research such work is used for internal possible.

Federal, State, and Accreditation (IPEDS, NYSED, Middle States, NCAA, etc.)

publish guidebook surveys and associations (US News, Princeton Review, a Set, etc.)

Consortia and data-sharing agreements (HEDS, College Board, CICU, New

Maintains official enrollment numbers and fulfills requests including and IR website routine requests from college constituencies (department review, grant etc.)

Research:

research studies in support of campus priorities and goals that inform the administration, college committees, etc. Priority is placed on research that simply interesting to know. Examples include student success research, peer marking, decision support studies, occasional papers, department & ance, ratings of teaching analyses, grant-related research and assessment, coordinates all-College surveys and report findings (NSSE, Non-Returning Student Survey, climate surveys, COACHE, etc.). Administers the all-College Student and Teaching process assessment to inform decision-making, promote student success, and ensure ess.

Assessment

The Faculty Director of Assessment provides support, guidance, and institutional leadership, administrative divisions, and academic departments assessment, assessment of student learning outcomes, general education administrative objectives.

and supports Middle States accreditation.